

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN POVERTY, LAND AND AGRARIAN STUDIES APPLICATION PROCEDURES FOR 2020 ACADEMIC YEAR

RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING (RPL) PROCEDURES

Dear Prospective Student

Thank you for your interest in studying at the Institute for Poverty, Land and Agrarian Studies (PLAAS) at the University of the Western Cape as your choice for pursuing your further studies.

PLAAS offers the Postgraduate Diploma in Poverty, Land and Agrarian Studies programme which is designed for passionate and committed working professionals in government, NGOs, the private sector in land and agrarian reform, rural development, natural resources and gender, who seek to progress in their careers and to improve their knowledge and skills in these sectors.

PLAAS considers applicants who do not hold a first degree, but has extensive working experience in land reform, rural development, natural resources management and/or gender issues. Applicants are to apply through the Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) procedure outlined below.

The Course Structure

Teaching and learning takes place at PLAAS, Cape Town, over two block sessions. The duration of each block sessions is three weeks from 09h00 – 16h00 daily. Students are to be in full attendance as this is the only contact time they have with coordinators. If a student does not attend the block session, he/she will forfeit the module. Various means of assessment, such as written tests, group debates, pre-contact assignments and post-contact assignments, together with structured teaching, ensure that the teaching and learning outcomes of the programme are achieved.

Application Procedures

Please read the following guidelines carefully to assist you in the application process. We will consider applications on a monthly-basis.

1. Apply online to the University of the Western Cape.
2. Complete the PLAAS Recognition of Prior Learning Form and submit all required supporting documentation via the upload functionality and via email.
3. Submit SAQA certificate for foreign qualifications
